International Conference

Organized by Entropia, the International Conference on Participatory Performing Arts, took place on 14th September, at the wonderful space of TECHNOPOLIS, in Athens.

The conference engaged over 40 people from different countries in Europe, who shared valuable reflections on our work with generosity and warmth. A great & very rewarding ending to our Project!

3rd online international meeting

The third international meeting with all partners, foreseen to happen in Lisbon, occurred online due to Covid restrictions, from 8th to 9th of April.

One of the highlights was the webinar Best practices in the inclusion of migrants through arts, with four speakers from Portugal, Greece, Italy and Austria.

Last Performances

Entropia presented the performance "How a Place becomes a Person..." between 17th and 20th of June 2021 at COMMUNITISM Cultural Centre (Terrace), in Athens. Marilli Mastrantoni and her collaborators utilized the tools of documentary and devised theatre, creating a show seeking to examine the "place" where people and their stories intersect.

Residenza IDRA is also going to present their performance at the Wonderland Festival, in Brescia. The performances will take place on the 29th of November, 19.30, 2nd of December, 22.00, 4th of December, 19.00, and 5th of December, 20.30.
